NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR:

To our talented cast and young stars, you have truly been the heart and soul of this production. Your commitment, creativity, and courage have inspired us all. Watching you grow and blossom into confident performers has been nothing short of magical, and we couldn't be prouder of the incredible individuals you all are.

To the parents and guardians, thank you for entrusting us with your children's dreams and aspirations. Your unwavering support—whether it was driving them to rehearsals, helping them memorize lines, or cheering from the audience—has been absolutely essential to making this production a success. Your dedication and encouragement have not gone unnoticed, and we are deeply grateful for everything you do.

As directors, educators, performers, and mentors, it has been an honor and a privilege to guide you on this journey. We have witnessed you overcome challenges, embrace new experiences, and form lifelong friendships. We have no doubt that the lessons you've learned and the memories you've created will stay with you for years to come.

As this chapter draws to a close, we look forward with anticipation to the many adventures that lie ahead. Whether you choose to continue performing with us or explore new opportunities, know that you will always have a special place in our hearts. Our doors will always be open, and we will always welcome you back home.

Thank you once again for your dedication, passion, and boundless spirit. You are the stars of tomorrow, and we cannot wait to see the incredible heights you will reach.

With all love and admiration,
Erica Lee McGeehan
